My China Regional Member ID is:
YL07667605 (Sponsor and Enroller)

or

My Young Living Member ID is:
54980 (Sponsor and Enroller)

The China Regional Member ID is currently located on all Young Living® accounts, regardless if you are involved in the China Market or not. This is your member number according to the system operated by our partner, JoyMain. In theory, this would be the number you provide to Chinese Nationals interested in being referred to YouLeFang. However, there is a current debate of whether or not this number should be made available on the Virtual Office and if it is better for you to provide your Young Living ID number instead. Please stay tuned for further updates. At this time you can use the one or the other.

The "China Referral Agreement" will be provided and required to sign within 5 days after the first new Chinese member registers. The agreement appears upon logging into the Virtual Office, (but only after the successful registration of your first China member). This agreement applies to all and any referrals you make through YouLeFang. So, once it is signed, it will not pop-up again when another member is referred. However, there is a virtual copy you can review under "Member Resources". You do not need to sign and turn in a paper copy of the agreement.

Here are the descriptions for each following field and please see attachment for full registration details: YLF_MemberEnrollment.pdf
